The largest campus is The Ohio State University with 98,000 students, while the smallest campus is Nebraska College of Technical Agriculture with 300 students.

There are 3,980,969 students enrolled at a Tree Campus across the USA.

$48,532,608 was spent by campuses on tree planting, care, and management in 2016.

The recertification rate is 96%.

There were 57,255 students engaged in Service Learning Projects in 2016.

40,922 trees were planted by Tree Campuses in 2016.

In the first year, 57 new Tree Campus USA schools were established.

Texas has the most Tree Campuses with 27.

Learn more at arborday.org/treecampus.