

Forestland in Cross Timbers Ecoregions

Forestland has at least 10% tree cover and is at least an acre in size. It is modeled from Forest Inventory and Analysis data and a number of environmental variables. East and West Cross Timbers are EPA Level IV ecoregions.

Map prepared by Rebekah Zehnder
Forest Analytics Department
31 March 2021

